Crime: PC 211 Armed Robbery

Location: Church Street/Arbor Lane, Rancho Cucamonga

Suspect: Three 17 year old males, Rancho Cucamonga Residents (Names Confidential)

Victims: Three females and two males

SUMMARY

On May 21, 2010 at approximately 9:41 p.m., five victims were robbed while walking near Church Street and Arbor Lane in Rancho Cucamonga. Witnesses described the three suspects as black males, approximately 17 to 18 years old, wearing "skinny jeans". One of the suspects was armed with a handgun. The suspects fled on foot after stealing cell phones and a purse.

During the investigation, Detectives were led to the possible identity of the three juvenile suspects. On May 25, 2010, two of the suspects were taken into custody and the handgun was recovered. On May 26, 2010, the third suspect was arrested without incident.

The three juvenile suspects were booked at West Valley Juvenile Detention Center for Armed Robbery.
