SUMMARY

On June 1, 2010, at approximately 11:00 a.m., Deputy Beitler assigned to the Victoria Gardens Substation's Retail Theft Team conducted a check on a vehicle that was located in the Walmart parking lot. Occupants of the vehicle were identified as David Weber, Richard Ramos, Mary Hunsaker and Tricia Geddes. Deputies located stolen property, hypodermic needles, and a substance believed to be methamphetamine. During the investigation, it was learned that the recovered stolen property was taken during a residential robbery that occurred May 31, 2010 in Fontana.

David Weber was arrested for being under the influence of narcotics, possession of a controlled substance and hypodermic needles. Richard Ramos was arrested for possession of a controlled substance and hypodermic needles. Weber and Ramos were found to be in violation of their parole and are being held without bail.

Mary Hunsaker was arrested and booked on four outstanding warrants out of San Diego and Riverside Counties on charges that include Burglary, Identity theft, Check Fraud, Resisting Arrest and being under the influence of Drugs.

Tricia Geddes was arrested and booked for receiving stolen property. All four suspects are being held at West Valley Detention Center.
