Crime: PC 245, Assault with a Deadly Weapon

Location: 7500 Block of Etiwanda Avenue, Rancho Cucamonga

Suspect: Unknown White Male Adult

Victim: 14 year old Female

SUMMARY

On February 24, 2009 at approximately 3:00 p.m. deputies from the Rancho Cucamonga Police Station responded to a call regarding an assault on a 14 year old female.

The victim advised deputies that while taking out her trash alone dumpster approximately 25 yards away from her front door, an unknown white male attacked her from behind, pulled her hair and forced her to the ground. The suspect reportedly held her down and used an unknown sharp object to press against her face and chest which resulted in minor lacerations. For unknown reasons, the suspect then fled the scene running northbound away from the area.

The suspect was described as a white male adult, unknown age, last seen wearing a dark blue or black sweatshirt, dark blue baseball cap, and sunglasses.

The Rancho Cucamonga Police Station is asking for the public's assistance in identifying the subject involved in this incident. Anyone with information regarding this crime is asked to contact Deputy Conley at (909) 477-2800.
